

Mahatma Jyotiba Phule

This dude was way ahead of his time a beautiful soul whose actions were divine

Just like a good man supports his partner this literate inspired his wife to be a teacher

He wanted to uplift the deprived and needy
He teamed up with his wife to transform the country

They gave free lessons on how to read and write ensured everyone understood education was their birth right

He had opposition, obstacles and offenses but he refused to give up and took chances

Every female in Maharashtra thanks him for his dedication without him there would be no women's liberation

Like the other superheroes he went out of his way to make the world a better place he strived every day

Inspiration : SUPERHEROES OF INDIA

I wrote this poem on May 1 2019 [Maharashtra Day] to celebrate one of my favorite superheroes of India. Video Format
